

92. FLOORS at the 30-employee Fort Tejon Area office get a thorough swabbing by Janitor Randy Morgan.
Fort Tejon – Photo by Maurice Tondreau

93. OFFICER Larry Blevins stands at the gate of a fictitious town entrance on film assist duty on the set of "Rocky and Bullwinkle", being shot west of Auburn. Under a reimbursable services contract, the CHP provided traffic control on an overtime basis to adjacent roads during the filming.
Auburn – Photo by Rob Boobar

94. OFFICER Randy Klucker stops by the grave of his partner and friend, CHP Officer James O'Connor, who never made it to "10-10" (off duty) time. O'Connor was killed in the line of duty in 1990.
Ventura – Photo by Randy Klucker

95. ON PATROL near the Butte Mountain Range in Sutter County, the smallest mountain range in the world.
Yuba-Sutter – Photo by Ramon Romo